1. The AVH will have its own district stations in Budapest, which will be located apart of the regular police district headquarters. Reportedly these stations will have double basements which will ordinarily serve as places of detention but can be used as air-raid shelters.
2. One of these stations is being built in District XIII, on the corner of Viktor Hugo utca and Pamponia utca. A high fence was put up around this area to prevent the passers-by from seeing the laying of the foundation.
